

Red Rock Indian Band

CALL FOR FIRST NATION–MEMBER–OWNED BUSINESSES

Are you a First Nation member who owns a business, does catering, crafting, guiding and more? The Red Rock Indian Band (RRIB) is creating a directory of First Nation–member-owned businesses to maximize opportunities related to the upcoming transmission, renewable energy and many other potential projects. We invite all First Nation–member-owned businesses—small or large—to submit their information so we can include you in future engagement, contracting, and economic development opportunities.

Who Should Submit?

- First Nation–member–owned businesses
- Home-based businesses
- Sole proprietors
- Registered companies
- Service providers, trades, suppliers, consultants, and more
- Unregistered Business - Elders, drummers, Knowledge Keepers, Crafters, Traditional Teachers, dancers, guides, caterers

What to Submit

- Business name
- Owner(s) name & community affiliation
- Contact information (email, phone)
- Services/products offered
- Website or social media (if available)

How to Submit

Email your business details to: k.baccar@rrib.ca

Or deliver in person to: Kirstine Baccar, Director of Economic Development

Why Participate?

- Contracting opportunities
- Employment and training potential
- Procurement of goods and services
- Long-term economic partnerships

By submitting your information, you help RRIB ensure that First Nation–member owned businesses are prioritized and recognized.

Let's work together to build community prosperity and support First Nation business success.